

Estimated Budget

Most of what you will need and want to do this summer is provided through Harvard Summer School, such as your meals (if a residential student), and free access to several Harvard libraries and museums.

The following costs have been estimated to help you plan for additional meals, trips, and incidental expenses you may incur.

Course materials	Textbooks	$100–200 per course
	Notebooks, folders, pens	$5 per course
	Printing and photocopying	5–10¢ per page
Living expenses	Toiletries	$50
	Laundry (wash & dry)	$2.50 per load
	Extra dorm furnishings (desk lamp, wastebasket, linens)	$60
Additional food	Individual meals in Annenberg Dining Hall (option for commuters) Breakfast, lunch, and dinner	$11, $14, and $17
	Meals in Annenberg Dining Hall for the summer term (option for commuters) includes three meals a day, seven days a week	$2,125
	Sandwich or salad at a café in Harvard Square	$7–10
	Pizza by the slice in Harvard Square	$2–4
	Ice cream at a shop in Harvard Square	$4
Fun & Entertainment	Movies	$8–12
	Museum passes (Museum of Science, Aquarium)	$10–20
	Fenway Park bleacher seat	$28
	HARVARD sweatshirt at The COOP	$35
	Sponsored Harvard Summer School trips (Cape Cod, Tanglewood)	$20–35
Travel	Taxi fare: Logan Airport to Harvard Summer School	$40
	Taxi fare: Harvard Summer School to downtown Boston	$15
	One-way bus or subway fare	$1.50–$2
	Weekly unlimited bus and subway pass	$15

Crimson Cash, a debit card system accessed through your Harvard ID card, is an easy way to make purchases on campus (cafés, printers, laundry, and vending machines) and at select off-campus shops. Money can be added securely and quickly to your online account by you and your parents. For more information, visit www.dining.harvard.edu/crimson_cash.